Subject: Today's Spirit led prayer for you...

As I was on my way home from my friends I was praying in the Spirit... and you came across my mind and I said, Lord what does Elijah need prayer for tonight. I heard the Spirit say that you needed to be encouraged. So I am going to exhort and encourage you my brother. =) Thank God for the Holy Spirit.

It is 3:45 am here now, but the prayer was about an hour ago. Anything in particular going on then? Perhaps we will never know.

Now, since the Spirit of the Living God is upon me... The Lord would say unto you...

"Be of good cheer, take courage my son, for lo, I am with you withersoever thou goest. I am with you. Even when you think I am not there I am. Those ideas which are in your mind I have given you. They are mine, consider them closely, take them and bear much fruit with them. For they shall bring much fruit. Many shall be fed with the fruits of your labors."

"You have been faithful with little, to him who is faithful with little much will be given. To him who is faithful and much is given much is expected. I do expect much from you. I will not expect more from you than you are willing to give. Give what I say when I say, this is what I expect. Give freely, give cheerfully of all that you have, time, money, love, mercy, and compassion but most of all give freely of those Living Waters. Give freely of Me. This is what I expect from you my son. To give freely what has been given you."

"You are blessed to be a blessing. I know there are times when you don't feel like a blessing, but my WORD shall prevail. My promises are Yes and Amen. My Word shall never come back void. All the words that have been spoken over you shall come to pass. I shall cause that which I have spoken to you to come into being just as I said it would. Rest in that knowledge. Let me be God. Just obey as you have been. You have proven your faithfulness and it has not gone unnoticed. You shall have your reward, now and in eternity."

"Don't you know how much I love you? Can you grasp the depths of my love? Can you comprehend that which is unconditional? Can you fathom this uncompromising love that I have for you? Know this - YOU ARE LOVED. I say, "I love you." I say again, "I love you." You are my son and I am your Father. You are my son and I am your God."

"I know your heart and that it is turned toward me. I shall manifest myself to those who love me and keep my commands. You shall see new things come to pass in your lifetime. For I do a new thing in this hour. A new thing I shall do in you and in those who love me and keep my commands. I will use them to do that which I did while I was upon this earth and many will believe and come into the kingdom because of you. This new thing I do in you is not what I have done before. I am God and I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh in this last hour. Time is short. Make haste. Follow me whithersoever I go and you will see my hand move upon this earth. I will bring blessings and I will bring curses. I will bring abundance and I will bring famine. Those who seek me shall find me. Those who don't will be cut down. I am the Lord thy God. I will bless whom I will bless and I will curse whom I will curse. It is not my will that any perish, but I am a jealous God and I will have no other gods before me."

"I am breaking a dam in your life. Living Waters are going to burst through you and out of you like. You are a reservoir. You have held your peace, but I say unto you that the time is nigh when those words that I have spoken unto you shall be unleashed unto all the world. They will know that I am the Lord thy God. They will know that I have spoken unto you what I wanted published. Don't hold back. Let the waters gush forth with might and with force. It is the force which shall produce the power. I will empower you for this hour. I will put my Words into your mouth and you shall speak them forth with great passion and with great authority. You shall be my mouthpiece. Just like Aaron was for Moses. You don't need a Moses to hear me, I will tell you what to say as I always have."

"Trust in what I say. Do what I have asked of you. Fret not. When the time is come you will know. For the time draweth near. These are the days which I have spoken of to you. These are the days which I have warned you about. Fret not. I will bring all things to pass. For I am the Lord your God. All power and all honor and all glory are mine. I will have no other gods before me. Tell my people that I am a jealous God. My wrath is sure and it cometh like lightening and it is sure to hit it's mark. Warn them and tell them that this is the hour. Tell them and warn them of the impending doom that is at their doorsteps. Tell them and warn them to turn from their wickedness while there is still time to turn."

"My sheep are scattered. Gather them up. Lead them to me. Feed them, guide them gently, for they are scared and they are skittish. They are wounded. They are hungry for My truths. For my Words for they are Living Bread to them. Lead them to the Waters so that they will thirst no more. Let them drink of those still waters and lay in those quiet fields for the time is coming when the fields will be red from the shed blood of my enemies and from the shed blood of the wicked. Not until this has come to pass shall my peace prevail upon this earth."

"My people are dying from a lack of knowledge. I have given you much knowledge and much understanding. Use it wisely in this last hour. Speak forth that which I tell you. Say what I say, don't hinder the work that I desire to do in you in this last hour. I have preserved you for this time and for this time alone. This is the hour you have long awaited my son. Now is the time for your gifts to come into full use. No longer will you sit back and watch while others are prospering. You shall be prosperous in your won right because of your obedience to Me. Envy not those who have ill-gotten gains. Their blessings and their prosperity is short lived. They shall not know true prosperity as you will."

"For I am the Lord your God. You know that what I have spoken to you is from me because you have heard all this many times before. Don't doubt what I say here. Soon and very soon you will see that what I have said is coming to pass just as I said it would long ago. By this your faith shall be increased to greater depths and it is this newfound faith that shall bring forth the miracles that you shall see. I will bless whom I will bless and I will curse whom I will curse. I have chosen to bless you. I have chosen you. You have not chosen me. Rest assured that what I say is true. Doubt not what my prophets have spoken to you. For I am the Lord your God."

Elijah,

I am way beyond curious. This is a very long word for you here. I am so excited by this that I can hardly wait to see what God is going to do with you. Please let me know how much of this is confirmation to you. I know that the prophet is not always 100% right on, we do have our flesh, but I felt the Lord quicken me with every word of this. This was the 3rd prophecy that I have deliver in the past few hours.

I have spent the day in prayer and praying in the spirit. I know that this is long, but it is good. I wish I had such wonderful words spoken over me. I would be rattling in my shoes. My knees would be knocking. I am going to go back and reread this and please send me your phone number again, I can't find it. I would love to call you later and see what you thought about all this and hear it in your voice. I wish I could have given you all this in person or via phone as well, but you know, I like this because you can print it out and always have it. How many times have we been spoken over to forget almost all of it except for the general idea?

Hold on cause many things are coming your way. I do feel that your book is going to be published but that was not what I was feeling in my spirit when the Lord was speaking about you publishing that which He had put in you. So whatever that means to you, I felt that I should add that.

God has already blessed me and is in the process of blessing you with many new and great blessings. Feel free to really pray and reciprocate. =)

I would love to see your face about right now. What is it doing? Which expression do you have?

Well I love you much, I will continue to pray and see what else the Lord tells me you need hey?

Blessings are coming your way... I have that on authority from above... And while I am thinking about it... how many ideas has the Lord given you? I don't think this applied to the new thing you are doing with the web. I think this had something to do with some type of ministry? ???

I surely don't know but that was what I was getting. I do feel that what you are doing on the web is going to be a great success and that the Lord is going to bless it as well. But this was something to do with bringing Him glory. ???

Again, I love you, and I can't wait to hear from you. I am anxiously awaiting.

PROPHECY FOR TODAY

Come Forth Elijah!

“Come forth Elijah! Come forth from the wilderness from which I have hidden you. Come forth from the desert of affliction by which I have proven you and tested you. Come forth from the rocks and caves and mountains. For the days of listening to the wind and fire shall be over. For you shall stand before Me as did Moses My friend. You shall stand with great boldness and with signs and wonders that have never been conceived or even imagined. New things shall come to your hands and through your mouth. For like me you shall be a person of Creation. You shall not be satisfied with the norm. You shall speak forth and a new creation shall form and the walls of religion shall fall by the wayside.

And do not be afraid of those that stood in the fore front of this move of Mine and those that have testified of their own greatness. For they have truly sold themselves short. They have settled for that which is in their own hand and not sought that which I have in My hand for them. For that which is in My hand is a perfect work, but that which is in their hand is tainted by their own desires and experiences. But you, My true servants, those that have waited patiently for Me, those that have allowed for Me to place you upon My wheel and work you and form you as I desire. Those that have not kicked against me. You shall come forth as My true and selected ones. Do not fear the wrath of man, because My hand shall be on you greatly. And though you feared that none would take notice of you. I tell you, do not seek the glory of man, for you shall truly be as Elijah and Jezebel shall seek to bring you down. For I have formed in you a heart of a warrior. I have trained you for battle. For the battle that is soon to come forth. And your only joy shall be in the battle. Your only joy shall be the smell of smoke and fire. For I have prepared you for this. I have kept you from the desires of the things of this world. I have fed you with locusts and starved you to be hungry for this day. I have brought your flesh under my subjection so that it no longer cries for the comforts of this world and the desire of mammon is gone. You, my true servants, seek only my will and my anointing and my desires.

For you have waited for a long time for this day and the preparation has been difficult, but remember this, you have never been alone. For I have hidden away others in the caves, just like you, with the same desires and purpose. So come forth now Elijah. Come forth from your hiding.”
